The background shows the YouTube Studio sidebar with navigation links: Your channel, Dashboard, Content, Playlists, Analytics, Comments, Subtitles, Copyright, Monetization, Customization, Audio library, Settings, and Send feedback. The main area displays a list of uploads, including "Fixing Old Track Live Part 2".

4. Click on “Dispute”

The screenshot shows the YouTube Studio interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation links: Your channel (BOOMOPERA MUSIC), Dashboard, Content (highlighted), Playlists, Analytics, Comments, Subtitles, Copyright, Monetization, Customization, Audio library, Settings, and Send feedback. The main area is titled 'Video: Fixing Old Track Live Part 2' and 'Copyright summary and status'. It contains three sections: Channel impact (Not affected), Visibility (Private), and Monetization (Ineligible). Below these is a table of content identified in the video. A modal window is open over the table, showing options to 'Remove claimed content?': Trim out segment, Replace song, and Mute song. The 'Dispute' button is highlighted with a red circle.

5. Check the box to continue with the dispute

6. Select “License” and click Continue

The screenshot shows the YouTube Studio interface with a modal dialog for disputing a copyright claim. The dialog title is "Dispute claim: Pacific Coast Highway". It has a progress bar with four steps: "Confirm eligibility" (completed), "Select type" (current step), "Review requirements", and "Provide rationale".

On the left, a video player shows a track by Kavinsky. Below the player, the claim details are: "Pacific Coast Highway", "Audio claim", and "Copyright owners: UMG, [Merlin] IDOL Distribution".

On the right, the "Select the main reason you're disputing this claim" section has four radio button options:

- ☐ Original content
The content claimed in my video is my original content and I own all the rights to it.
- ☒ License
I have permission or a license to use the content claimed in my video.
- ☐ Fair use
I have significantly transformed the content claimed in my video; the video is protected by fair use, fair dealing, or similar exceptions to copyright.
- ☐ Public domain
The content claimed in my video is in the public domain and is no longer protected by copyright.

The "License" option is circled in red. At the bottom of the dialog, there is a "RETURN TO CLAIMS" link on the left and "BACK" and "CONTINUE" buttons on the right.

In the background, the YouTube Studio sidebar is visible with the "Content" tab selected. The main area shows a list of videos under the "Live" tab, with columns for "Live viewers", "Comments", and "Likes (vs. dislikes)".

8. Copy and paste text from the license into the top space
Check all of the 3 boxes and write your signature bellow, your full name or company name (whatever is on the license)
